Pop Up Display Stands

All of our pop up display stands feature your bespoke designs and artwork, helping you to get your brand noticed and stand out at exhibitions and events.

Pop up display stands are ideal for exhibition use. They are easy and fast to assemble, simply stretching out and clicking into place. Our pop up display stands feature fabric covers which fit easily to the frame via Velcro strips.

All of our pop up display stands are supplied with a carry case as standard, making them easy to transport. We also offer a carry case alternative that can be transformed into a display counter.

We have a range of sizes available for our pop up display stands, including 2x3, 3x3, 4x3 and 5x3. All of our sizes are measured in the number of quads used within the frame.

Fabric Tension Curve Display Stand

Our fabric tension curve display stands are ideal for exhibition use. They help to create an eye catching display, showing off their unique curved shape.

The frame is easy to assemble, with no need for feet as the curved shape allows the frame to stand up on its own. The stretch covers fit tightly, ensuring your promotional messages are seen clearly. All of the covers are printed using your designs and branding, helping you to grab attention.

We have an 8ft and a 10ft fabric tension curve, allowing you to choose a stand that suits your display environment.

Exhibition Counters

Exhibition counters help to bring a focal point to your exhibition stand, providing a place to display marketing materials and talk with event attendees.

We have a choice of exhibition counters, including...

Fabric Tension Counter

This is a lightweight counter that features a robust plastic counter top and base. The stretch cover fits tightly, ensuring your promotional messages and designs are displayed clearly.

Roller Counter

Our roller counter is ideal for exhibitions, featuring a wooden counter top. It can also be transformed into a wheeled carry case, making it easy to transport your other display stands and marketing materials.

Feather Flags

Feather flags are versatile, eye catching and can be used in most display areas. They help to ensure that your promotional messages grab attention.

You can choose from four different shapes, including our standard feather flag shape, teardrop, fin and portrait. We can also produce bespoke contoured feather flags, following the shapes of your artwork.

Alongside choosing the shapes of your feather flags we also have ranges to choose from, allowing you to choose a flag that suits your budget and display purposes.
